STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

The Complainant states that the following facts establish probable cause:

Your complainant is an investigator with the St. Paul Police Department and bases this complaint on police reports and his own investigation:

In February of 2010, the Hennepin County Sheriff's Office referred a case to the St. Paul Police Department regarding Lisa Joan Connery EILERTSON (DOB 5/18/1964) and Thomas Wayne EILERTSON (DOB 8/7/1967) using the name "Blessings of Liberty" to file false liens against numerous individuals and businesses.

In 2009, the Eilertsons' home at 4448 Cedar Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN, was foreclosed on by their mortgage company, which ultimately ended in a Sheriff's sale on December 8, 2009. The Hennepin County Sheriff's Office later posted a writ of recovery on the property on June 30, 2010 and returned to physically evict the Eilertsons on July 2, 2010. The Eilertsons had vacated the house before the sheriff's deputies returned on July 2, 2010.

After being instructed by P.K., a person they met on the internet, the Eilertsons began filing Uniform Commercial Code ("UCC") liens against people associated with their economic problems. The Eilertsons used the name "Blessings of Liberty" rather than their own names on these liens after being instructed by P.K. that doing so would insulate them from civil or criminal liability. In total, the Eilertsons filed liens totaling over $114,000,000,000 throughout 2009 and 2010. All of these UCC liens were filed at the Minnesota Secretary of State's Office located at 60 Empire Drive, Ste. 100, St. Paul, Ramsey County, MN.

Below is a partial list and description of the liens filed by the Eilertsons:

On September 3, 2009, the Eilertsons used an online account to file a UCC Financing Statement against Steven H. Bruns, an attorney with Peterson, Fram & Bergman. The Eilertsons claimed that Mr. Bruns owed them $5,000,000 due to a "trespass." Mr. Bruns represented the lender during the foreclosure of the Eilertson's Cedar Ave. home, and his name appears in numerous court documents relating to the foreclosure.

On November 30, 2009, the Eilertsons went to the MN Secretary of State's Office and filed another UCC Financing Statement against Steven Bruns and his firm, Peterson, Fram & Bergman. In the same filing, the Eilertsons listed Hennepin County Sheriff Richard W. Stanek and the Hennepin County Sheriff's Office as debtors. Sheriff Stanek's office was involved in the foreclosure and subsequent Sheriff's sale of the Eilertson's Minneapolis home.

On December 1, 2009, the Eilertsons used an online account to file an amended UCC Financing Statement against Steven H. Bruns. This amended filing did not list any additional money to the debt, but it added personal property to the lien.

On December 2, 2009, the Eilertsons went to the MN Secretary of State's Office and filed another UCC Financing Statement against Steven H. Bruns. This filing did not list any additional money to the debt, but it added personal property to the debt, including Mr. Bruns' personal residence in Minneapolis.

On January 2, 2010, the Eilertsons used an online account to file a UCC Financing Statement against Michael Cunniff, the Hennepin County Registrar of Titles. This filing claimed that Mr. Cunniff was indebted to Lisa

Eilertson and Blessings of Liberty for over $10.2 million. As Registrar of Titles, Mr. Cunniff is an attorney and was involved in the foreclosure and Sheriff's sale of the Eilertsons' home in Minneapolis.

On January 3, 2010, the Eilertsons used an online account to file an amended UCC Financing Statement against Steven Bruns and others. This amended filing alleges that Mr. Bruns and others owe Blessings of Liberty over $500,000,000 for trespass.

On January 5, 2010, the Eilertsons used an online account to file a UCC Financing Statement against Kimball Foster, the Hennepin County Examiner of Titles. This filing claimed that Ms. Foster was indebted to Lisa Eilertson and Blessings of Liberty for over $5.1 million and attached a secured interest to her personal residence in St. Paul. As the Examiner of Titles, Ms. Foster is an attorney who advises the Registrar of Titles and was involved in the foreclosure and Sheriff's sale of the Eilertsons' home in Minneapolis.

On January 8, 2010, the Eilertsons filed documents with the Ramsey County Registrar of Titles, located at 90 W. Plato, St. Paul, Ramsey County, MN. These documents placed a lien on the private residence of Kimball Foster, also located in Ramsey County. These documents claimed that Kimball Foster was indebted to Blessings of Liberty for more than $5.1 million. While Blessings of Liberty was listed as the debtor, the check used to file the lien came from the Eilertsons' joint checking account and was signed by Lisa EILERTSON.

On January 29, 2010, the Eilertsons used an online account to file a UCC Financing Statement against Mercedes Gustafson and Jaime Hommerding, attorneys with Messerli & Kramer. Messerli & Kramer represented Discover Bank in a civil case against Thomas EILERTSON and FIA Card Services in a collection action against Lisa EILERTSON. The UCC Financing Statement claimed that these attorneys were indebted to Blessings of Liberty for over $40.7 million.

On March 25, 2010, the Eilertsons used an online account to file a UCC Financing Statement against Brian Hoelscher, an attorney who worked for Excel Title. This financing statement alleged that Mr. Hoelscher was indebted to Blessings of Liberty for over $2.5 million. Excel Title provided title insurance to the lender when the Eilertsons refinanced their home in 2002, 2004, 2005 and 2007. Mr. Hoelscher recalled receiving the lien paperwork from the Eilertsons but discarded it because he had not conducted any personal business with the Eilertsons and knew it to be an illegitimate lien.

On March 25, 2010 the Eilertsons used an online account to file a UCC Financing Statement against Steven Tierney, claiming that he owed Blessings of Liberty over $2.5 million. Mr. Tierney is an attorney whose office used to work with Excel Title and was involved in closing one of the Eilertsons' mortgages that was ultimately foreclosed upon. Mr. Tierney informed police that he had no idea how his name later came to be associated with the UCC Financing Statement filed against him.

In a court filing on April 30, 2010 signed by both Thomas and Lisa EILERTSON, they accuse Mark S. Thompson (Hennepin County District Court Administrator), James T. Swenson (Hennepin County Chief Judge), Michael O. Freeman (Hennepin County Attorney), Toni Beitz (Assistant Hennepin County Attorney), Rick Sheridan, Kimball Foster (Hennepin County Examiner of Titles), Michael Cunniff (Hennepin County Registrar of Titles), Richard W. Stanek (Hennepin County Sheriff), Brad Erickson (Hennepin County Sheriff's Deputy) and others of participating in a conspiracy to defraud the Eilertsons of their home that was sold at a Sheriff's sale on December 8, 2009. The filing then went on to demand $100,000,000,000 in compensatory and punitive damages.

On May 4, 2010, the Eilertsons used an online account to file a UCC Financing Statement against several individuals and offices. The indebted parties in this filing include Michael O. Freeman (Hennepin County Attorney), Kimball Foster (Hennepin County Examiner of Titles), Michael H. Cunniff (Hennepin County Registrar of Titles), and Mark S. Thompson (Hennepin County District Court Administrator). This filing claimed that these parties, among others, owed Blessings of Liberty more than $110 billion. All of the listed individuals were in some way associated with the foreclosure and Sheriff's sale of the Eilerstons' Minneapolis home.

On May 27, 2010, the Eilertsons filed an amended 267 page UCC Financing Statement against multiple people. This amended filing claimed that the following people and organizations were indebted to Blessings of Liberty for more than $110.2 billion. The list includes:

Toni A. Beitz – Assistant Hennepin County Attorney
 Frederick Sheridan – Assistant Hennepin County Attorney
 Richard W. Stanek – Hennepin County Sheriff
 Mark S. Thompson – Hennepin County Court Administrator
 Michael O. Freeman – Hennepin County Attorney
 Kimball Foster – Hennepin County Examiner of Titles
 Michael Cunniff – Hennepin County Registrar of Titles

Toni A. Beitz is an Assistant Hennepin County Attorney who represented Hennepin County employees in judicial proceedings to remove liens previously filed by the Eilertsons. Frederick Sheridan is an Assistant Hennepin County Attorney. As part of his duties, he advised the Hennepin County Recorder's Office regarding the Eilertsons submitting incomplete paperwork. He mailed letters to the Eilertsons in November and December of 2009, but the letters were ultimately returned to him.

The people listed above all state that they have never engaged in any sort of personal business with the Eilertsons or Blessings of Liberty. Also, all of the UCC Financing statements described above were filed with the Minnesota Secretary of State's Office in St. Paul, whether it was done in person by the Eilertsons or online.

During the course of executing a search warrant on June 18, 2010 at the Eilertsons' home at 4448 Cedar Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN, police recovered thousands of documents and other evidence related to the filing of UCC Financial Statements and other liens. The Eilertsons also spoke extensively to this investigator. During the course of the conversation, both of the Eilertsons spoke in a manner that suggested they were both fully participating in the process of filing liens against people. The Eilertsons indicated that they would release all of the liens that they filed if they could just have the title to their home at 4448 Cedar Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN. When asked regarding how they determined the amount of damages when filing the liens, Thomas EILERTSON indicated that the amounts were arbitrary.

Among the items seized by the police were two computers belonging to the Eilertsons. A search of one of the computers revealed a number of recorded conversations between Thomas and Lisa EILERTSON and P.K. During the conversations, the Eilertsons asked P.K. how to file liens against people and how to use the UCC to create binding contracts with people who do not respond to the Eilertsons' notices. A review of the various conversations makes it clear that both Thomas and Lisa EILERTSON are involved in filing the various UCC documents and other liens and that they are using these as a means to intimidate or seek revenge against people. Based on all of the evidence seized as well as the statements of both Thomas EILERTSON and Lisa EILERTSON, this investigator believes that the Eilertsons used the name "Blessings of Liberty" to file all of the liens previously discussed in an attempt to evade criminal or civil liability for their actions.

Page: 18 of 32

P.K. described how the Eilertsons can use the UCC to "do death by a thousand papercuts." During one conversation Thomas EILERTSON told P.K. that he gave the sheriff five days to remove the foreclosure notice or the sheriff would "forfeit his bond," which this investigator understands to mean that Thomas EILERTSON would file some type of UCC lien against Sheriff Stanek. Thomas EILERTSON also described how the Hennepin County Attorney was preventing him from meeting Sheriff Stanek and "accepting his oath."
